

JANUARY PARTNER LETTER

"THEN THE LORD ANSWERED ME AND SAID: "WRITE THE VISION AND MAKE IT PLAIN ON TABLETS, THAT HE MAY RUN WHO READS IT." (HABAKKUK 2:2)

Dear Friend,

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year everyone! I can't believe the year is over already! It's been an incredible year with Right Side Up Ministries and after 14 months on the road I have moved to Broken Arrow, Oklahoma where I plan to stay for a season. I am planning on attending Rhema Bible Training Center and take part in the School of World Missions program starting in the fall of 2011. In the meantime I am seeking direction, and refining the vision for RSUM. The vision is based on two foundational premises:

1. To bring the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the outcast and undesirable. To show the unloved the unconditional love of Jesus.
2. To provide emergency response to areas hit by natural disaster, to be early responders and help those with serious needs.

With this vision I am committed to stay on the edge of effective ministry. Here is a look at what's in the future for Right Side Up Ministries.

1. Attain a 501c3 non-profit status for Right Side Up Ministries.
2. Expand the disaster relief efforts here in the U.S. and overseas.
3. Create a homeless program to help feed, shower, and clothe the homeless around the United States.
4. Start a program in Haiti to build homes, feed the hungry and spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
5. Become active in extreme sports outreaches, focusing on skateboarding and snowboarding.
6. Continue to find ways to partner with organizations working on public school campuses.
7. Attend and complete School of World Missions at Rhema Bible Training Center.
8. Expand overseas work, including long term mission work.
9. Create an online prayer community where people can support and encourage each other through prayer.
10. Start phase 2 of U.S. travels.

I will be working toward Right Side Up Ministries 501c3 nonprofit status. For a time there will not be an option to obtain a tax receipt for your giving. Family Worship Center has been more than gracious in letting me raise funds through the church, but it is time to step out and trust God for increase. For this reason, ALL checks written must be written to Right Side Up Ministries. You can also give easily and safely online at www.rightsideupministries.org through our secure PayPal account.

I am so very grateful for all of your support and I would like to give back to those who have so generously given to this ministry. This is why I am looking at ways to open a two way street of giving.

With this in mind I have started an email account for prayer requests. I will take time out of each week to pray for you and your specific needs. It is easy to be involved; simply email your prayer requests to partnerprayer@rightsideupministries.org.

You may have noticed that the "Newsletter" has been changed to the "Partner Letter". I believe that when you give of your prayers, time, and money you become a partner with RSUM. Partners are a key ingredient to success, and are an important element in Right Side Up Ministries and all that the ministry accomplishes. When you choose to partner with Right Side Up Ministries you are not only partnering with me, but with God and what He is doing through RSUM. This also means that I will no longer use this letter as a push to raise funds, but rather to inform people of where we have been, where we are, and where we are going.

More changes taking place with RSUM: there is now a ministry flickr account and a YouTube account, and RightSideUpMinistries.org has a new look. I have started an RSUM specific blog that will have content about things going on in the ministry. I'm continuing with the monthly E-Prayer Letter, and to help lower costs, through email I will be sending out an E-Partner version of the Partner Letter. If you would like to receive the email version of the Partner Letter or would like to join the E-Prayer Team please send an email to scott@rightsideupministries.org.

Thank you for all of your support. Right Side Up Ministries has had the privilege of ministering to hundreds of people around the U.S. and in Haiti because of your support. I am excited for what lies ahead in the coming months and years and what we can accomplish together through our partnership.

Thank You and God Bless
